B.A.No.4696 of 2007

Dated this the 14th day of August 2007

O R D E R

Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner apprehends arrest by the officials of the Edappally police station on the allegation that he has committed non-bailable offence. Notice was given to the learned Public Prosecutor. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that there is no police station by name Edappally police station. In fact, the area where the alleged offence was committed and the apprehension of arrest takes place falls within the Cheranalloor police station. Hence the learned Public Prosecutor took instructions from Cheranalloor police station. At the Cheranalloor police station, no crime has been registered and the petitioner is not required to be arrested, submits the learned Public Prosecutor.

The learned counsel for the petitioner was requested to point out specifically the identity of the official of the police from whom he apprehends arrest. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he apprehends arrest by the officials of the Cheranalloor police station. I accept the submission of the learned Public Prosecutor that the petitioner is not required to be arrested in connection with any crime by the Cheranalloor police station. The apprehension of the petitioner is thus found to be without any basis.

2. This petition is accordingly dismissed as agreed.
